THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE RAMESH RANGANATHAN

WRIT PETITION No.3653 of 1998

O R D E R:

This writ petition is filed questioning the action of respondents 1 and 2, in selecting the third respondent to the post of Anaesthesia Technician in the first respondent-institute, as arbitrary and without jurisdiction.

While making detailed submissions on merits,
Sri V.R.Avula, learned counsel for the petitioner, would fairly submit that despite best efforts he has not been able to contact his client and does not know whether his client is still interested in prosecuting this litigation after a lapse of more than ten years.

Smt P.Sarada, learned counsel for respondents 1 and 2, would, on instructions, submit that the petitioner worked in Care Hospital for two years and thereafter, shifted to Dhaka and is presently working at Dhaka.

Sri V.R.Avula, learned counsel for the petitioner, would submit that, in such circumstances, when the petitioner himself is fairly well settled, no useful purpose will be served now in having the appointment of the third respondent set aside.

Recording the submission of Sri V.R.Avula, learned counsel for the petitioner, that the cause in the writ petition does not necessitate any further adjudication, the writ petition is dismissed. No order as to costs.
